

NGLCC Global UK | EU Summit September 27-28, 2018 | Barclays in Canary Warf, London

Join the Global Division of the U.S. National LGBT Chamber of Commerce (NGLCC Global), as well as LGBTI-owned businesses and corporate partners for the 1st NGLCC Global UK | EU Summit!

NGLCC Global is proud to partner with Series Q and present its inaugural NGLCC Global UK | EU Summit to be held in London from September 27-28, 2018. This Summit follows five successful years of regional summits throughout the Americas, all spearheaded by NGLCC Global and in partnership with global affiliates.

The Summit will bring together leaders and experts from corporations, entrepreneurship, global economic development, government, and academia. Through educational programming and networking, the Summit will strengthen the ecosystem that supports the advancement of economic and social development of LGBTI entrepreneurs and the LGBTI community at large, in Europe and worldwide.

The Summit will provide delegates an opportunity to share best practices, meet with corporate leaders who seek to do business with diverse-owned companies, and identify and address any barriers to the overall success of the LGBT business community worldwide.

This event will be catered toward the following professionals:

- LGBTI business owners
- Corporate Supplier Diversity professionals
- Corporate Diversity and Inclusion professionals
- Members of the economic development community
- LGBTI community leaders and civil society organizations
- Local business leaders
- Members of the government who advance the rights of LGBTI people
